

Discovery Stage
Sponsored by

This year, our Discovery Stage is featuring programming from the Hale Mana'o and Aunty Aloha activity areas. We look forward to the time we can return to our original placements. In the meantime, a big Mahalo to Azeka's Sauce for sponsoring Hale Mana'o programming.

10:30 Learn to hula

Kaimikahu Hale O Hula

Keiki of all ages can have fun learning a simple hula with beginning steps and arm movements. Guaranteed to get you moving!

11:30 Aunty Aloha's Ukulele Lesson

Kehau Chrisman

Ukuleles only have four strings but great power. The perfect learner instrument, Ukes are easy to play. Bring your own or borrow one of ours, join in and you'll be playing before you know it! (Simple chords and strumming are taught.)

12:30 Mother Goose, Local Style

Shernelle Copland

Hawaiian Pidgin came about when immigrants came from all over the world to work the sugar cane plantations. It borrows entire words from other languages in a mishmash of vowels and consonants. It's da kine Muddah Goose!

1:30 Explore Polynesia: Its Differences and Similarities

Brent Malolo

Polynesia's Islands share a similar story of migration and adaptation. Their peoples share many stories and some are their own. Languages, dress, stories, and environments create a great feast of cultures to explore.

2:30 Samoan Choir

Laupanana Iaulualo

Enjoy your Sunday afternoon with the harmonies of old songs and traditional hymns sung in the Samoan language.

3:30 Aunty Aloha's Kanakapila

Helen Vickonoff, Tony Padayhag, and Wes Ganeko

This is 'backyard' kine playing, when anyone can join in to strum and sing...and sometimes dance!

The Arizona Aloha Festival runs on Volunteers. No one is paid, we're all here because we love this event!

So when you see the people in those brightly colored shirts, thank them.
And if you'd like to join them, we'd love to have you: volunteer@azalohafest.org

In loving memory of
Lau Kanaka No Hawaii
member

Henny Hechanova

1957 - 2020