

On Saturday, March 9 — after the Arizona Aloha Festival.....
Join us for an interesting & thought-provoking Hawaiian Cultural Seminar

TATTOOING in HAWAI'I & OTHER POLYNESIAN CULTURES: Origins of today's "Mixed Polynesian" tattooing - What was it really like in older times

by B. Ka'imiloa Chrisman, M.D., Cultural Scholar

Ka'imiloa will present a fascinating seminar on the designs of Hawaiian & Polynesian tattoo, origins of the designs and how & why they were applied in the art. Hawai'i will be emphasized.

During his 31 years in Hawai'i, Ka'imiloa was on all the islands and had an excellent relationship within the Hawaiian community. He has taught extensively and is a recognized scholar on many Hawaiian & Polynesian cultural topics.

Sat. March 9, 2019

7:00 PM—9:00 PM

Event Admission:

$10.00

Pre-Ticket Sales:

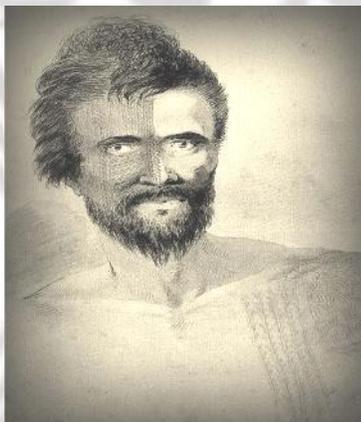

AlohaHawaii.ticketbud.com

Event Location:

Phoenix Indian School
Visitor Center,
300 E Indian School Rd
(located at Steele
Indian School Park)

Directions:

Enter the Steele Indian School Park off Indian School Road at 3rd St./Herrera Way, head north on Herrera Way, proceed by the brick pillars into the parking lot; follow signs to the Visitor Center. (An easy 15-20 minute drive from Tempe Beach Park area)

In this presentation, you will learn:

- ◆ What's true and what's not about Polynesian tattoo
- ◆ The different kinds of tools used to tattoo
- ◆ How tools & inks were made
- ◆ How techniques & designs differed in the island groups
- ◆ Cultural rules and requirements to give & receive tattoos
- ◆ How & why Ka'imiloa has a self-applied traditional tattoo

Note: This will be a very thorough 90-minute PowerPoint presentation, plus some traditional tattoo tools & materials to view, with time for questions at the conclusion.

For more information, call or text (928) 963-2361

or email alohahawaii96822@gmail.com

Interested in having Ka'imiloa present a lecture or workshop for your group or organization?

Visit our website: www.AlohaAinaOHawaiiInc.org for a list of topics and workshops.

Presented by Aloha Aina o Hawaii, Inc., a 501(c)3 non profit organization (www.alohaainaoahawaiiinc.org) with support from Lau Kanaka No Hawai'i (www.lkn haz.org)