

Tattooing in Hawaii and other Polynesian Cultures

The designs of Polynesian tattoo are striking and currently popular. But do you know about the origins of the designs and how they were implemented in the art produced on the skin?

In this workshop, you will learn:

- The different kinds of tools used
- How tools and inks were made
- How tattoo techniques differed in the island groups
- How designs were different amongst the islands
- Cultural rules and requirements to give and receive tattoos

This workshop is presented by:
Dr. B. Ka'imiloa Chrisman

Cost: Suggested $5 Donation at the door

Place: Boys and Girls Club,
Ladmo Branch
715 W 5th St, Tempe

Date: Saturday, March 10, 2018

Time: 7:30 - 9 p.m.

Workshop is suitable for adults and youth.
Youth under 16 must be accompanied by adult.

Questions? Email: workshop@azalohafest.org

This workshop is Sponsored by: Arizona Aloha Festivals Inc.

In conjunction with Aloha 'Aina O Hawaii, Inc.

(both are nonprofit 501(c)3 charitable organizations)

